- Post preview: Either you're part of the solution or you're part of the problem. In disability rights like so many other areas of life.
- Who can see your post: Public
- Share to groups: Reach more people when you share your post in relevant groups.
- Monetization: Earn money on your content
- Boost post: You'll choose settings after you click Post. (Toggle is off)

A blue 'Post' button is visible at the bottom of the modal. Below the button, a red warning message states: 'We limit how often you can post, comment or do other things in a given amount of time in order to help protect the community from spam. You can try again later. Learn More'. At the bottom of the modal, it says: 'If you think this doesn't go against our Community Standards let us know. Give feedback'.
